Dorchester 28th March 2008:

DBC (Dorset Brewing Company) takes over Goldfinch Brewery and Tom Brown's in Dorchester

Dorset Brewing Company Ltd in Weymouth has taken over the running of Dorchester's brew pub Tom Brown's on the 31st March.

In a deal with the Pub's owners Oak Taverns, DBC will take on the brewing of the Pub's established brands, Tom Brown's bitter, Flashman's Clout and Old Harry's Midnight Blinder and the management of Tom Brown's pub.

Giles Smeath, DBC's Managing Director said, "This represents a great opportunity for us to promote our products and to restore the Tom Brown's brands to the pub where they were created. We have trolled through twenty-year-old records to find the original recipes so that we can reproduce the beers as they were originally designed. Over the coming months we plan to introduce some of the ideas that we have so that the pub can offer a more universal appeal to old and new customers alike. We will be marking our first venture in the retail side of our business with a themed celebration of our national day, St Georges day on 23rd April."
